

Bill lived a full life. He graduated from Miramonte High School, Orinda California, in 1961. After high school he attended the university of California at Berkley receiving a degree in Biological Sciences. He attended graduate school at California State University at Hayward. After Graduate school Bill Commissioned as an Officer in the United States Army. He spent six years on active duty before transitioning into the U.S. Army Reserve where he spent 30 more years as a commissioned officer retiring as a LTC in 1995. In addition to his years of service as a U.S. Army service man, he also served as a civilian employee, serving as the Transportation Officer and Director of Logistics at U.S. Army Garrison, Oakland Army Base from 1994 to 1998 and Executive Assistant to the Commander at our very own Camp Parks Reserve Forces Training Area from 1998 . Bill certainly lived a full life and gave so much to our country and our community.
