

VietNam Veterans of Diablo Valley Welcome Home Troops in Dublin

Honoring our heroes

AFTER BEING PRESENTED with a Certificate of Appreciation from the San Ramon Valley Veterans, U.S. Army Pfc. Lance Otzmann of Danville (right) shakes hands Thursday with the Viet Nam Veterans of Diablo Valley's John Reese during a welcome home reception for military personnel on holiday leave in Dublin. Eight members of the military were honored in the event hosted by the city of Dublin and the Sentinels of Freedom.

DOUG DURAN — Staff

VNVDV IN THE NEWS

Welcome Home Ceremonies for the Tri-Valley Area military home on leave was hosted this year by the Town of Dublin with the support of the Blue Star Moms and Sentinels of Freedom Foundation. All major veteran organizations were represented from the area including the VietNam Veterans of Diablo Valley. Certificates of Appreciation were given to each service member "thanking them for serving" and "welcoming them home." Dec. 2007