Help Distribute 10,000 American Flags with the VNVDV

VNVDV JUNE 5TH DINNER MEETING
BRIDGES GOLF CLUB, SAN RAMON

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

First let me say thanks to my first-class group of speakers that were a part of this year's Memorial Day Ceremony. Renee, Mary, Marcia, Judy, Mike, Jim, Hugh, Tom and our Poet, Elaine. Then there were the Scouts, branch flag bearers, rifle team, and all who helped set up the camo and take it down, and secure the picnic. And thanks to everyone who showed up to help remember our fallen.

So, remember in January when I said we still had work to do in improving our image? I want to get back to that. Since we are almost all retired now, we have a bit of time we can donate to the cause. But how? I would like you all to submit your ideas of ways we can help other veterans or the community. It doesn't need to be a ton of work, just a couple hours a week. Please email or write a note to me with some ideas.

President's Message (Continued on Page Two)

The Phillips 66 Rodeo Renewable Energy Complex Management and Employees sponsored the 2025 - 16th annual WALK of HONOR held on May 17, 2025. The VietNam Veterans of Diablo Valley THANK Phillips 66 for their Sponsorship and special appreciation goes to Aimee Henry for her support of Veterans & local community on Armed Forces Day in Crockett.

SPEAKER for the JUNE 5TH DINNER MEETING will be DOUG MILLER, VNVDV Member presenting his experiences as a helicopter scout pilot and lift pilot with the 3/17 Air Cav Squadron. During his second tour he served with the 12th Aviation Group where he was assigned to fly a CIA agent multiple times a month.

Help out at the VA. Drive the cart around, work in the store or coffee shop, be a greater.

Help out at the Senior Center. Help out on the Monday free lunch program, etc.

Maybe start our own monthly Pancake Breakfast at the VMB. Or monthly Spaghetti dinner

Increase involvement by the community in our building and activities.

Etc., etc. you tell me.

I know we are all getting older, but it is nice to have a good showing at the 4th of July Parade. We do need people to carry flags, but if you cannot, please come out and pass out flags to the kids or even just sit in the Huey and wave. After the parade it is off to Luna Loca and then back to the VMB building for the VFW bbq.

And sorry the audio system at Bridges is still a bust. Tim Sammons has been trying his best to make it better, but the room is fighting him. The SIRS have the same problem. Tim has not given up yet, so maybe.....

Thanks for everything, see you Thursday
