VNVDV JANUARY 8, 2026 MEETING BRIDGES GOLF CLUB, SAN RAMON

Dennis Giacovelli
VNVDV
President

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

As we enter this new year, I wish each of you and your families good health, peace, and prosperity. May you find strength in your own well-being, and may this be a year where we not only nurture ourselves but also extend our hearts to those around us who need help the most.

I know, reaching our “Golden Years” often translates into health issues, doctor visits and down time, but when you look around, you might find that there are others in more vulnerable shape. We, as a grass roots Veteran Organization, have a calling, a duty to not only take care of our own, but our community, however we can.

In the spirit of the New Year, let us remember the importance of compassion and service. There are many ways we can make a difference—whether it’s through lending a hand, offering kind words, or contributing to causes that bring hope and change. Let’s continue to grow together, not just in our personal lives but in our collective commitment to making the world a better place for all, especially our brother and sister veterans.

I look forward to working with you all towards these goals.

President
